

By Robert Pressl / Updated: 25 Jan 2018

PROSPERITY SUMP Ambassadors talk about their experience with SUMP

Submitted by Robert Pressl on 30 Nov 2017

Picture:

CIVITAS PROSPERITY supports local and national governments to improve the quality and take-up of Sustainable Urban Mobility Plans.

The project brings together European cities, regional and national governments and mobility experts in one of the most ambitious sustainable urban mobility planning projects in Europe. ->Read more

Topic:

Urban mobility planning

Link:

Prosperity website

Body:

Our SUMP Ambassadors are enthusiastic personalities who share their interesting stories, findings and lessons learnt from their personal experience with sustainable urban mobility planning. Prosperities first three interviews with SUMP ambassadors are online. See what - Sándor Nagy, Vice Mayor of Szeged, Hungary - Carl Hanssens, Alderman of Mobility, Local Economy and Employment of Sint-Niklaas, Belgium and - Steen Møller, Deputy Mayor from Odense, Denmark - Laura Ballesteros, Vice Minister for Mobility Planning and - Christina Gauce, SUMP Coordinator of Vilnius say about their experience with SUMP.