Festival CinéRail 2011

Tuesday 15 March 2011 at 01:01 Tuesday 22 March 2011 at 01:01

Paris,

Past event

Information / Description:

CinéRail's 18th edition will feature several main rendez-vous to present film buffs and railway enthusiasts with works made possible by the conjunction of railways and cinema.

Road to India

This year, CineRail Festival dresses up to the bright colours of India.

Our 19th edition gives tribute to this magical country where the cinema keeps a special place. India, thanks to its record as the first producer of films in the world, offers to its grand public a rich and abundant cinema.

Fireworks for your pleasure.

International short films competition

Around 50 short fiction films and documentaries from all over the world, featuring unusual approaches, "slices of life", encounters, dreams, expectations, and all life's adventures.

A feature film selection (out of competition)

Unpublished films, great classical films, recent movies, family screenings...

Cinérail's short specials

CinéRail is proud to present again to its ever-growing public genuine diamonds it has screened over the years. Rare and exciting moments to be shared.

Travel Screenings, embarking the spectator on journeys, near or afar, to visit magical places and to meet people from all walks of life, whose stories are intimately linked to trains.
