

5th European Conference on Sustainable Urban Mobility Plans

14–15 MAY 2018 | NICOSIA, CYPRUS

Planning for multimodal cities

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

This conference has been made possible with the support of:

Nicosia's history and geographical uniqueness have made it a crossroads for some of history's most important civilizations. Imprints left by the Ptolemies, Romans, Byzantines, Franks, Venetians, Ottomans and finally the British may be encountered in one's wanderings through the Old Town area of Nicosia.

YOUR CONFERENCE IN NICOSIA

Nicosia rewards visitors in search of 'something different'. Many different architectural influences are visible throughout the city, and one cannot help but be charmed by how the past and present, and the traditional and contemporary, have seamlessly fused together.

The city's landmarks, museums, theatres and galleries inspire and fascinate, while its many restaurants, cafes and bars point to a unique gastronomic tradition. Modern and historic, the capital of Cyprus is above all a vibrant destination.

EUROPEAN PLATFORM ON SUSTAINABLE URBAN MOBILITY PLANS

The European Platform on Sustainable Urban Mobility Plans supports the development of the Sustainable Urban Mobility Plan (SUMP) concept and provides support tools for local planning authorities. The platform promotes the exchange of good practice, and facilitates co-ordination and co-operation between the different EU-funded actions through a coordination group. More information on the platform, case studies, tools and other support services is available at www.eltis.org/mobility-plans.

Planning for multimodal cities

The European Conference on Sustainable Urban Mobility Plans (SUMP) is Europe's leading annual event targeting all those involved in putting the SUMP concept into practice. It serves as a forum for policy makers, practitioners, experts and researchers to network, debate key issues and exchange ideas on sustainable urban mobility planning.

In line with the European Commission's decision to make 2018 the year of multimodality, the 2018 SUMP conference focuses on "Planning for multimodal cities", looking at the various transport modes, their integration, and combined mobility solutions for passengers and freight in cities and regions.

Thematic conference streams:

A: The Big Picture	B: Towards SUMP 2.0	C: Making SUMP Happen	D: The Local Context
Stream on the overarching policy framework for SUMP	Stream on the revision of the EC SUMP Guidelines	Stream on the implementation and roll-out of SUMP	Stream on local and regional context conditions
